

The company was funded by the Action of the Competitiveness Programme (NSRF 2021–2027) “SME Extroversion”. The Action aims to enhance and support the export orientation of small and medium-sized enterprises and concerns the support of investment plans aimed at utilizing and developing modern technologies, as well as upgrading the products produced and the services provided.